

CAULLT CONFERENCE PROGRAM DAY 2

Friday 29th October 2021, 11am-2pm AEDT*

Leading Higher Education: Near and Far Horizons

#nearandfarhorizons @CAULLT

A CAULLT member event

10.45	Open for Acknowledgement of Country Please add your acknowledgement to the traditional owners of the land from which you are joining us	Victoria University
11.00	Welcome to Day 2 of the CAULLT Conference Acknowledgment of Country, Welcome New Members	Prof. Jillian Hamilton
11.1	LAUNCH: CAULLT Goals 2022-2024	Prof. Jillian Hamilton
11.25	DISCUSSION: What is in your near future and far horizon? Group Breakout Rooms and Padlet:	Dr. Andrea Adam
11.55	The Value of Understanding QILT Data to Lead Quality Learning and Teaching through Near and Far Horizons Lisa Bolton, The Social Research Centre	Assoc. Prof. Barbie Panther
12.15	Q&A
12.25	Break
12.35	CAULLT GRANT INSIGHTS Establishing Benchmarking Standards for Academic Development Assoc. Prof. Marina Harvey (lead), Dr. Andrea Adam (UTAS), Prof. Jillian Hamilton (QUT)	Prof. Gayle Morris
1.05	Q&A
1.15	Academic Archetypes: Understanding the Experience of Being an Academic in Australian Universities Prof. Helen Partridge (Deakin) and Dr Kate Davis (USQ)	Prof. Simon Bedford
1.35	Q&A
1.45	Closing remarks (summary of near and far issues)	Prof. Jillian Hamilton

* Please check your local time against Sydney time

Program subject to change